C. of C. Speaker Sees Business Now Recovering

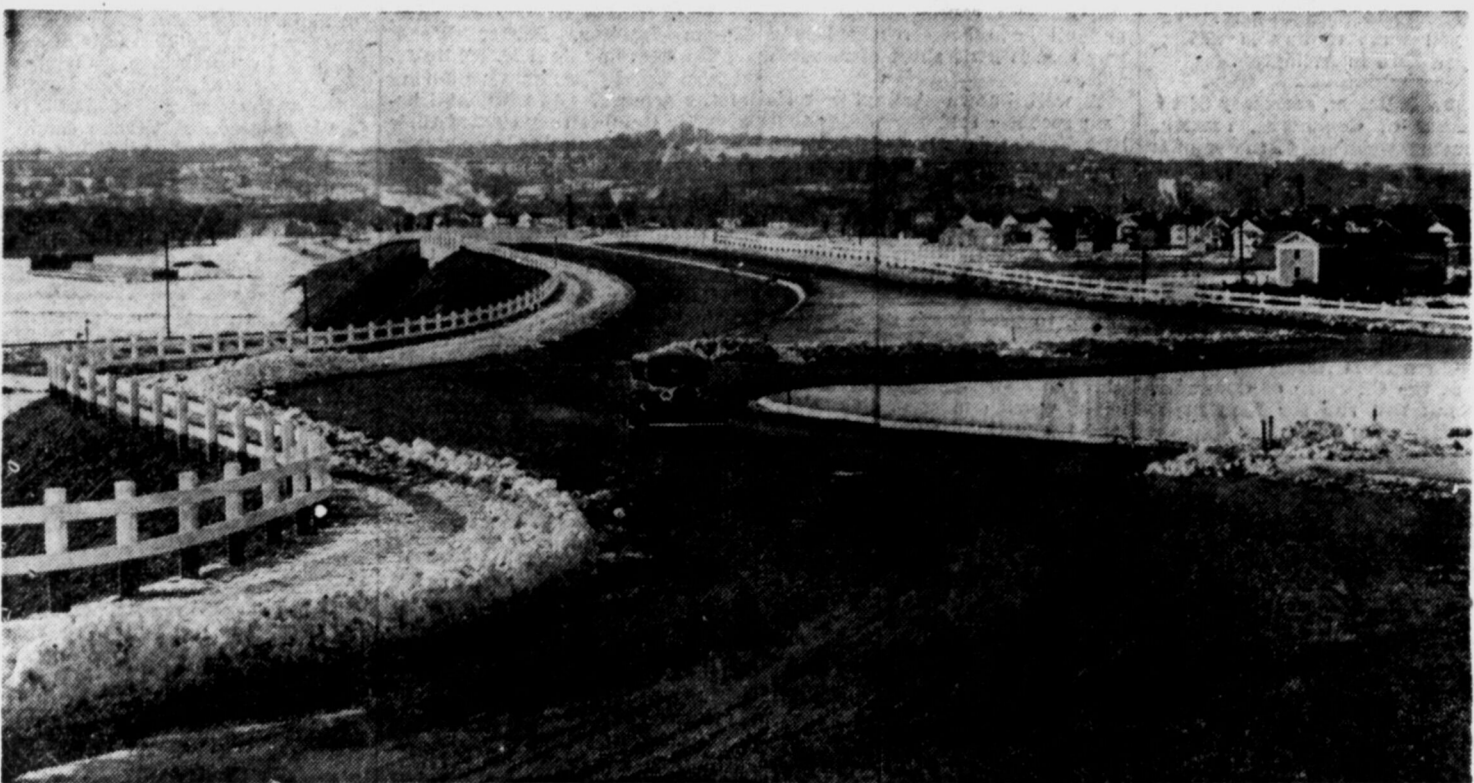

Prof. Armstrong of M. I. T. Gives Interesting Picture of Business Conditions — Either Government or Private Business Must Take Full Control, He Says — Profit Motive Necessary For Good of Country, Speaker Believes — Fears Unbalanced Budget In Government

"Neither restraint nor regulation of business but uncertainty and lack of control of business is to blame for the slow climb of recovery," Professor Lloyd E. Armstrong, noted economist of Massachusetts Institute of Technology told the Chamber of Commerce at its monthly dinner in Wyman's tavern last Tuesday evening. Speaking before a large gathering which included Arlington's representatives in the State legislature, town officials, and prominent business men, Professor Armstrong delivered a frank, unbiased and stirring talk on business conditions of the day. He was introduced by Capt. Sarkis Zartarian who briefly outlined the

Seek Traffic Lights For Intersection At Lake St and Highway
Taking action to safeguard lives at the intersection of Lake st. and the new Cambridge-Concord highway, the board of selectmen this week requested the State Department of Public Works to install traffic lights at this point immediately.
Although the road is not officially open, motorists are using it at their risk and one serious accident has already taken place at the intersection it is understood that plans for the road call for lights at this point.

HITCH-HIKERS PICKED UP
Two Fitchburg boys enjoyed the hospitality of Arlington's police last Wednesday after they had been picked up by police officer Peabody at midnight. The boys had thumbed rides from Fitchburg. They were held at headquarters until their parents called for them in the morning.

WILL FILE BILL TO REGULATE BUSINESS ON NEW HIGHWAY

Streets Designated For Local Coasters
Churchill ave, Crescenthill a.e. Eastern ave, Florence st, Washington st have been designated as streets on which coasting will be allowed by the selectmen this winter. Action was taken last Monday evening. The board also authorized Chief of Police Archie F. Bullock to open other streets for coasting according to his own judgement.

New Zoning Committee Takes Action to Safeguard Scenery Along Cambridge-Concord Highway—Would Regulate Erection of Billboards To Safeguard Driving—Plan Uniform Rules For Entire Road—Collins Is Local Representative On Committee—Highway Now Partly Open

With two sections of the Cambridge-Concord highway still closed to highway users, the new two million dollar project will not be entirely completed until next May, it is estimated. The section from Alewife Brook parkway at Pleasant st at the Arlington-Belmont line is finished however. This stretch skirts Spy Pond where some fill was necessary. Warning signs to protect contractors are being posted and when all in place, the finished stretch of the highway will be

Ex-Sen. Warren Charges Fraud In The Recount

Petitions Senate To Remove Sen. Daly and Give Seat To Warren — Claims Loss of Upwards of 300 Votes By "Fraudulent Practices" Over and Above Number Shown On Election Certificate — Specifies Prec. 2 of Wd. 2

Charging fraud, Ex-Senator Charles C. Warren of Arlington, Republican, this week filed a petition with the clerk of the State Senate requesting the removal of Sen. Charles T. Daly of Medford, Democrat, and that Warren be given Daly's seat.

In his petition Warren asserts that during the recount of votes there were fraudulent acts in Medford by "a person or persons unknown." He specified the alleged frauds as follows:
"Ballot boxes were opened after they had been sealed by precinct officers."
"At the so-called recount in Medford a large number of identified ballots and or ballots all appearing to be in the same handwriting were counted for the opposing candidate (Daly)."
"Ballots cast in Medford were left for a long period of time out of custody of the city clerk."
"Custody of a ballot box or boxes and keys thereto were left in the hands of 'authorized persons.'"
"After such illegal custody had existed, the count of the ballots in said boxes varied from 75 to 100 from the original count of supposedly the same ballots."
"In Ward 2, Precinct 2, the election officers found and reported 28 blanks. At the so-called recount the registrars found 84 blanks which had never been voted for any person."
"Your petitioner lost 56 votes

THE BOY SCOUT DRIVE

The annual financial drive for the Boy Scout Movement in Arlington started off last Monday with enthusiasm under the leadership of Herman Gammons, Principal of the Senior High School.

A complete news article about the drive appeared in last week's NEWS but we are pleased to call attention to this worthwhile drive at this time.

To be a good Scout means the same as being a good citizen. The men who are giving their time in this drive deserve our thanks, fullest cooperation and support.

The Boy Scout movement is one of the finest programs for character and citizenship training that we know of and we urge Arlington people to encourage the boys by making a generous contribution to this worthy cause.

Many To Work On Farm Census Through Middlesex County

A great many people in Middlesex County are taking an active part in a proposed agricultural census that is to be started this month by the Bureau of Census, Washington. It is understood that one supervisor, Henry Plunkett, will have charge of Massachusetts. Local people desiring positions as enumerators should make application at once to his office. It is understood that preference in the appointment of the enumerators will be given to farmers, farmers' wives, and farmers' sons and daughters. Preference will also be given to properly qualified veterans. The Bureau of the Census insists upon the following qualifications for enumerators:

1. Must be citizens of the United States.
2. Should be active, energetic men and women of good address, character, and habits.

3. Should have at least an elementary education and be able to write legibly and with reasonable rapidity.

4. Should be engaged in farming or following some occupation so closely connected with farming that they are thoroughly familiar with farm conditions, i. e., graduates or students of agricultural schools, etc.

5. Should be a resident of and well and favorably known in the township or other minor civil division in which the duties are to be performed.

Payment of enumerators is fixed on a piece-price basis; that is, the enumerator will be paid a certain amount for each complete, accurate, and properly prepared farm report turned in to the supervisor. These rates will vary according to the density of the farm area. An active and energetic enumerator should earn $4.00 or $5.00 per day. The period of employment will be about fifteen or twenty days.

THE NEWS OBSERVES

Our auto dealers are enthusiastic about the new 1935 cars that are finding their way into their showrooms. Watch the News next week for a special announcement of interest to auto owners. The car you want to buy is waiting for you here in Arlington.

Alma Callahan, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, received a rousing welcome at the regular meeting of the organization last Tuesday evening. The well-known business woman has been confined to her home for some time after undergoing an operation.

For those who are interested, Van Ness Bates, who outlined his plan for rapid transit and traffic concourse from Arlington to Boston at the Chamber of Commerce meeting will run for Lieutenant-Governor in two years.

Mr. Bates merely hinted at it in his opening remarks which were so full of fireworks that it's a wonder now that Ye Old English Tavern wasn't blown up.

The honor rolls at all Junior High Schools have been released. They will appear in a later issue of the NEWS.

Business must be better. Arlington had more marriages and births last year than in 1933. Figures compiled at the office of the Town Clerk show for 1934: Births 562; marriages, 354. For 1933, births, 539; marriages, 342. With the number of deaths at 417 last year, there were five fewer deaths than the previous year.

The answers coming in on our "Scramble Page" contest by the hundreds each week indicates the popularity of this contest. The unique and interesting answers reveal unusual originality and skill on the part of many. The judges are having great difficulty in awarding the prizes as many are so exceptionally good and worthy of mention.

The government will borrow millions this year to restore prosperity. What about investing a portion of your income in developing your own business by telling the public what you have to sell in the News?

The political pot is beginning to boil for fair, Richard Stockdale, of 1215 Massachusetts ave., Arlington Heights, is the first to announce his candidacy for Selectman in the next Town Election. Mr. Stockdale has been a resident of Arlington for 29 years so undoubtedly knows his community.

Although we haven't received a formal announcement as yet, it is generally understood that Leonard Collins, chairman of the board of selectmen will run for re-election.

The name of Thomas N. Butler, Arlington Heights, has been mentioned as a candidate for the Board of Public Works. Here's another office for which they'll unquestionably be a good fight.

The Citizens' Committee is meeting next Monday evening, we're told. So, Tuesday morning several of our citizens should know the good or bad news.

Speaking of election, it seems that Senator Charles T. Daly has certainly worked hard enough and earned his recent victory, but apparently he's still going to have a hard time convincing some people that he's our new Senator for a term of two years. If certain powers expect to make a political football of him they may be due for a surprise.

Newspapers will play an important part in the sales promotion work for the 1935 models of automobiles now making their debut. Many manufacturers have already purchased huge quantities of newspaper space in preference to other media. Oldsmobile, for example, intends to place 60 per cent of their entire campaign to inform the public about the 1935 cars in newspaper advertising.

George Derrico, age 10, of 123 Hibbert street, was injured when struck by a truck, owned by a Boston bakery, on Hibbert street last Saturday.

LOCAL DRAMATICS HIT NEW MARK THIS YEAR

By JOSEPH D. CALLAHAN
What a year 1934 was in Arlington Dramatics! All of the dramatic organizations in town—and there are quite a few of them—have presented plays and shows throughout the year and all have been received in a way that is little short of remarkable.

A well known Arlington resident recently told the writer that he believes this is the banner year of the Commonwealth for encouraging and supporting amateur dramatic productions. We would go even further than that and say that Arlington is foremost throughout New England in the opportunity it offers those interested, to participate in a play or show.

Last summer we made a tour through New Hampshire and Vermont visiting most of the cities and towns that sponsor "Little Theatre" movements. Most of the places visited had but one dramatic organization and while they took pride in the support given it, they frankly admitted that it was doubtful whether they could support more than one.

MARJORIE MANNING
1934's Leading Actress

Beginning in January, on the 12th to be exact, the Arlington Alumni Association presented a musical show in the Junior High East with a cast of about 100 local people taking part. The show was coached by Miss Laura A. Hallisey of Sunset Road, a graduate of Arlington High, Class of 1930. The response was so great that it surprised even those taking part. An hour after the doors opened every seat in the house was occupied.

Many who failed to attend the performance asked if it would be presented again and so by popular demand it was put on at the Capitol Theatre for three evenings on March 12, 13 and 14th. Joseph J. Bevins, former High School teacher and member of the School Committee was master of ceremonies. Then on Friday evening February 9th the High School Dramatic Club presented as its annual play "The Merchant of Venice" in the town hall with a capacity audience in attendance. The play was directed by Mrs. Helen F. Matthews, head of the dramatic department at Arlington High. She was assisted by Miss Claire Johnston.

March was another good month for local actors and actresses. On the 9th and 10th the Friends of the Drama presented "Daddy Long Legs" in the town hall for the benefit of the local Girl Scout Council. In addition to the regular players five girl scouts took part in the play. Miss Susan Powers had the leading role and the production was coached by Miss Miriam Hendrick Cahalin. On the night of Friday March 16th two local dramatic organizations held forth and both were greeted by large crowds. The Saint James Dramatic Club of the Heights presented "When Irish Eyes are Smiling" at their playhouse on Appleton Street and the Immaculate conception Players of East Arlington put on the three-act comedy "Her Step-Husband" in the town hall.

In April the High School Music Department sponsored the opera "The Pirates of Penzance". A full house witnessed the performance on the evening of the 6th in the Town Hall. Miss Grace Gordon Pierce, Supervisor of Music in the Arlington Schools, was in charge of the production. The following evening in the Town Hall the Gill Club of the First Parish Unitarian Church presented the three-act comedy "The Blue Flag" before a large and appreciative audience. Then on April 13th the Friends of the Drama presented "The Middle Watch" in the Town Hall. The play had a long run in Boston but nevertheless it was produced very successfully here by this enterprising and active dramatic organization.

St. Jerome's Guild Plans For Formal

A meeting of St. Jerome's, Fr. Fitzgibbon's new Arlington-Belmont parish Guild, was held at the Menotomy Club room recently. President James Carmody presided, assisted by Miss Florence Ahern and Richard Maher, treasurer and secretary. The main topic of the evening was the formal dance to be held Friday, January 25th, at the Hotel Continental in Cambridge. Judging from reports of the various committees, the success of the affair is assured. A ticket committee was appointed, consisting of: James Carmody, Margaret Crayton, Dan Buckley, Wm. O'Brien and Joseph Murphy.

After the business meeting refreshments were served followed by dancing. The next meeting of the Guild which will consist of a similar program is enthusiastically looked forward to on Thursday, January 17th also at the Menotomy Club.

The next social event for St. Jerome's will be a bridge and whist to be held at the Hardy School, Lake st., on January 14th.

JUNIOR EAST TOPS MALDEN

The Junior High East earned their second victory of the season at the expense of Beebe Junior High of Malden, 26 to 19 this week. The East put on an aggressive passing attack to place Miller their center into scoring position for four goals from the floor. The two forwards Driscoll and Reid were outstanding for the losers.

STOLEN CAR CRASHES

Stolen from in front of 93 Milton street last Tuesday night, an auto owned by Ernest A. White, of 20 Ward street, Woburn was abandoned after it had crashed into a safety island in Cambridge. The car had to be towed to a garage because of heavy damage.

Brendan Keenan, eminent Boston musician and teacher, has been engaged to present his new principles of piano-pedagogy at the Salzburg Festival in Austria next July and August. This is perhaps the first time in American musical history that an American has been invited to Europe to present at one of Europe's greatest Festivals.

Three Injured In Automobile Crash

Automobiles operated by Irving Wishnow of 12 Bowdoin sq., Dorchester, and Raymond L. Nickerson of 43 Forest st., Lexington, were in collision at Massachusetts ave and Park ave at the Heights last Sunday evening. The Nickerson car was waiting for the traffic lights to change. Following the crash Miss Rose Keizer of 1203 Boylston st., Boston; Miss Dorothy Ballanoff of 49 Sylvia st., East Lexington, and Simon Wishnow of 766 Morton st., Dorchester, complained of injuries and were treated by Dr. Simon.

American Legion Auxiliary Plans Council Luncheon

Plans for the Middlesex County Council luncheon which is to be held at the Arlington High school Saturday, Jan. 26, by the American Legion Auxiliary are fast being completed. A meeting of the committee was held at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Agnes M. Maritz, Tuesday. A very successful bridge and whist party was held Monday by the American Legion Auxiliary at the Legion headquarters under the supervision of Mrs. May Watts, chairman, assisted by her committee.

New Club For Boys Launched In Arlington

By Kenneth Troy
A new club, the St. James Catholic Club, with Rev. Maurice J. O'Connor, pastor of St. James church, acting as honorary chaplain, has been organized. The club is open to all including non-Catholics. Father O'Connor has arranged for the boys to use the church hall for social and informal gatherings. The ages for enrollment are from 18 up. Many popular young "High school athletes are charter members of this club and fine athletic teams should result. Al Leary, assistant football and basketball coach at the High school will direct athletics.

Among the other popular senior members are: John Walsh, Clifford Day, John Cashman, Joseph Prebensen and John McNeil.

Officers of the St. James club are: Frank Higgins, president; John Kedian, vice president; Tom Waters (ex-High athlete) secretary and Robert Hession, treasurer.

The entertainment committee consists of John Curley, chairman; Bill Curley, Joseph Le Blanc, Mark Quinn and Francis Cook. The hockey and basketball teams are now in session and are to join the different leagues throughout the state.

Gospel Team From B. U. at M. E. Church

A Gospel Team composed of five young men from Boston University School of Theology will be in charge of the Sunday evening services at Calvary during the month of January and the first Sunday in February according to an announcement made recently by the minister of Calvary Church.

The team is led by Mr. Harvey Nelson who acts as Captain. He will be assisted in his program by Mr. Lisle Bartholomew of Whitehall, N. Y.; Mr. Raymond Proudfoot of West Somerville; Mr. Wendell Minnigh of Parkersburg, Pa.; and Mr. Harrison Davis of Malden, Mass.

NEW BIRTHS HERE

The following births have been recorded: A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Theodore H. Wright, 23 Mt. Vernon st.; a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Richard X. Burke, 201 Mystic st.; and a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. John H. Shea, 19 Alfred rd.

Sport Briefs

By BOB FOREST

That Chelsea quintet packed an awful lot of power, but take it from us they aren't going to go through the season unscathed. They haven't the reserve power and there are really only two good men on the team. With either of these missing it may mean defeat.

You know basketball plays to us are just so much that we have heard about, but that Chelsea offense was wide open to even the most inexperienced. Their whole attack used Perkins the center, as the key man. From him every play was centered. Sometimes he blocked the center of the basket and allowed his forward to dribble in right under the basket and score.

Other times he had the ball and waited for the forwards to shake loose their entangling companions in the shape of an Arlington forward, and even to us this seemed surprisingly easy. In other words a man to man attack against Chelsea is almost useless.

The only thing that will tie Chelsea team up is a five-man defense. It is the only solution for their attack, played as it is in front of the man on the passes and not in back as most offenses. The five-man defense is sort of a lost art in schoolboy basketball, but we'll bet that if a team beats Chelsea it will be using it.

That Arlington-Melrose hockey game was heartbreaking to us as we thought the Arlington team had everything to break that eight-year jinx, but it looks as though we were wrong.

We saw one Arlington team beat Melrose in hockey, away back in 1927. Since then we have played ourselves and saw two defeats, 2 to 0 and 2 to 1. We can say with a little pride that we were never on the ice when a Melrose goal was scored.

While we are on the subject. We play basketball in the Amateur Basketball league which, incidentally, started with such a bang last Monday night. Well we're put on the spot. You can't write about yourself. So!

But we can write about someone else, Bob Friery for instance. You know it was funny the other night. Bob got a little hot under the collar when we were riding him and so he watched us with a little more vigilance than usual, as a result we were called on every miscue. Well it so happened that we shot for the basket three times and Bob blew his whistle three times. Two of them went in. No baskets.

Well Bob is one swell referee, so when we inquired in an Irish whisper to a teammate, "What's he doing celebrating every time we shoot, with that whistle?" Bob says, "Technical Foul, shoot one." The other team made the point. Oh well, we still think he's a great referee and we think that the players think so because he refereed the second team at the High School last Friday night and the Chelsea boys were remarking about how good he was.

Mrs. Atwood Hostess To Kensington Park Study Club Women

"Women Patriots and Authors" was the topic of discussion at the meeting of the Kensington Park Study Club held at the home of Mrs. C. E. Atwood last Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Atwood read a paper on Julia Ward Howe and spoke of her impression of the latter on a visit to Boston. Mrs. Erickson spoke on Harriet Beecher Stowe, and of the staging and filming of Uncle Tom's Cabin. Refreshments suggesting the New Year were served at an attractively decorated table. The club will meet with Mrs. L. M. Evans, Jan. 22.

LOEW'S ORPHEUM THEATRE

Songs, music and laughter are blended in one harmonious theme in the program which has "The Night Is Young." Metro-Goldwyn-Meyer's new musical romance co-starring Ramon Novarro and Evelyn Laye and six acts of vaudeville scheduled to open Friday at Loew's Orpheum theatre. Heading the stage show is Shirley Ross, Hollywood's newest singing discovery, whose program includes a repertoire of popular song hits. Sharing headline honors with Miss Ross, is Professor Lambertini, in a highly amusing musical presentation entitled "Kidding on the Keys." Other acts include Hal Menken, known with Betty Castle, the Sweet and Lowdowns and Keith Rankin in "High Pressure Songs and Dances." McNally, Claxton and Lloyd in "It's Up To You." Tenaki and Okuni "Nippon's Conjuror" and Le Ray's "Acrobatics Par Excellence."

Asst. Dist. Atty. Volpe To Speak Here Sunday

First Asst. Dist. Atty. Frank G. Volpe of the Middlesex County Superior Court will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Trinity Athletic Class in the Trinity Baptist Church Sunday, at 12 noon. The members of the men's Bible Class are to be guests of the young men and have been asked to bring their sons with them to share in this red-letter day program. The members of the young men's class also have been urged to bring their fathers and brothers.

A special musical program has been arranged with the following participating: Mr. Walter Jones trumpet soloist; Mr. Harold Keene, tenor soloist; and Mr. Peter Tilsley who will offer recitations on the musical glasses. All men, young or old, are invited to attend and join in this full hour of religious devotion from 12 to 1, ending with the inspiring message from a man of such outstanding calibre as Atty. Volpe.

You've all heard of the needle in the haystack but here's a new one about the disappearing steam shovel. A well-known resident complained to the police last Monday night about a steam shovel on the new Cambridge-Concord highway, as being not properly lighted. A scout car crew was sent to investigate. But, lo and behold, neither the officers nor the complainant were able to find the steam shovel.

BY A TUNE-UP WITH THE WEIDENHOFF MOTOR ANALYZER

Motor car builders have given wings to their cars. The modern automobile with its high-speed, high-compression and high-efficiency engine is a marvel of performance. But it must be properly serviced to retain peak performance.

Our motor tune-up with the Weidenhoff Motor Analyzer includes checking all the items—ignition, coil, spark plugs, distributor, compression, vacuum, etc., which collectively give you outstanding engine performance.

The remarkable efficiency of the high-compression engine in your car can be maintained for the normal life of the car by regular tune-up inspection on our analyzer. This equipment is designed and built expressly for keeping your motor car at its top efficiency.

Cheney Jones Is Hardy School PT Group Speaker

Cheney Jones was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Hardy School Parent Teachers Association last Tuesday evening. Music was provided by Mrs. Bertha Peresheljan, soprano, who was accompanied at the piano by Armentis Avakian. Refreshments were served, mothers of the Sixth grade acting as hostesses.

The association will sponsor another Children's Entertainment Saturday afternoon, January 19th, at 2:30 p. m. in the school hall. The program will include a Magician's Show and specialty numbers by children. Proceeds will be devoted to welfare in this district.

Heights Study Club Hears Two Papers

A meeting of the Arlington Heights Study Club was held on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Horace H. Lester, 12 Linnaean st., Cambridge. Refreshments were served by Mrs. E. M. White and Mrs. Clarence Johnson, hostesses for the afternoon. After the business meeting in which plans were discussed for the Scholarship Bridge which will be given on the afternoon of Tuesday, January 22 in the Parish House of the Congregational Church on Park avenue Mrs. Herbert Snow introduced the first speaker on the program, Mrs. George Lloyd who had as her subject "Leopold and the Congo". Mrs. George Parker gave a vivid character delineation of Cecil Rhodes. John Hanson added to the enjoyment of the meeting with a group of piano-forte selections.

Study Groups For Crosby School PTA

At the meeting of the Crosby P. T. A. last Wednesday evening, Mrs. M. Norcross Stratton, President of the Association announced that she had arranged for a series of three study groups to be conducted by Dr. Helen I. D. McGillicuddy, leader, Educational Sec'y Mass. Society for Social Hygiene, as follows:

March 1, Social Hygiene and the School Child.

March 8, Social Hygiene and the Adolescent.

March 11, Boy and Girl Relationships.

All members, especially those with child problems should avail themselves of this opportunity and attend these discussions.

Crosby PTA Hears Talk By War Nurse

In spite of the inclement weather on Wednesday evening, there was a large attendance at the Crosby Parent-Teacher Association meeting, to hear Miss Mary Boyle O'Reilly.

She gave a very interesting talk on her experiences as a War Correspondent and Red Cross worker during the World War.

The Blue Bell Trio, composed of Miss Phyllis Edwards, violinist; Miss Audrey Lester, cellist and Miss Phyllis Lamoth, pianist, entertained with several very fine selections.

There was the usual business meeting and refreshments were served.

NEW U. S. W. V. OFFICERS FORMALLY INSTALLED

For the fourth consecutive time Maj. Gen. Walter E. Numerous presents and baskets of flowers were presented the various officers, following which dancing was indulged in until midnight.

St. John's Guild Has Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of St. John's Guild was held last Monday with a large attendance. Reports from the various groups were given, and showed a very prosperous year. A goodly amount remained in the treasury after the contributions were made to the current expenses of the Parish. The Building Fund, Community Welfare, Diocesan and National work of the Church, etc. Sewing had been done for different missions, and in all it was a splendid year's work under the capable leadership of Mrs. Norval Bacon who has consented to serve again as president.

Other officers are: Mrs. Ralph M. Simonds, Mrs. J. H. Kernan, Mrs. William D. Colvin, Mrs. T. J. McCoubrey, Mrs. John Willworth, Mrs. Russell T. Hamlet, Mrs. Arthur Barnes and Mrs. H. C. Moseley.

At the annual meeting of the Parish on Jan. 11th a supper will be served to members of the Parish by Mrs. C. T. Hall's group, chairmanned by Mrs. T. J. McCoubrey. This will be the first Annual Meeting in the new Parish Hall, and the first time it has been possible to have a supper at that meeting where there will be room for all the members of the Parish to be together.

Friends of Drama To Present Play Written By Wood

The executive board of the Friends of the Drama has set aside three nights, January 23, 25 and 26, for its next presentation at the club house and the Maples Academy. The current attraction will be "The Swift Sword", which has been written in three acts and seven scenes by Parker Wood, who is well known in local dramatic endeavor.

The ingenious plot of the play is based on an unusually contrived murder. Strangely enough, the murder is committed and the murderer caught—all within the scope of the first act. It may be said without exaggeration, however, "After that, things really begin to happen." The author has succeeded in following a climax in the first act with flights to even greater emotional heights thereafter.

It is anticipated that the new play will draw record crowds to the clubhouse, not only because it was written by a member of the organization, but because the cast is considered one of the finest ever assembled for a Friends of the Drama production. Mildred Trempl, who won her spurs in Arlington with the inaugural presentation of the club, "Sing Sweet Angels", is handling the direction.

Heading the cast are Miriam Hendrick Cahalin, one of Arlington's finest in the histrionic art, Brenton Roberts, who has had wide experience on the road as well as in Arlington; Marjorie

METROPOLITAN THEATRE

The picturization of George Ade's famous comedy "The County Chairman" starring Will Rogers in conjunction with "Star Dust Revue", a colorful musical show featuring Benny Davis and his newest group of stars, are the principal features of the Metropolitan Theatre new season program.

The stage offering, "Star Dust Revue", centers around Benny Davis, famous song writer and discoverer of talent, with his new collection of stars. Davis, credited with the "discovery" of several now famous screen and stage personalities, brings to the Metropolitan an imposing array of his future stars of Broadway. Included in the large company of vocalists, dancers, comedians and novelty artists are such talented youngsters as Jimmy Shea and Guy Raymond, Rolfe Pickert, Edith Mann, Bobby Lane, Evelyn Farny, Jimmy Byrnes, Bobby Bernard, Blanche Lewis, Babe Sherman and the Winstead Trio. The Elida Ballet is another feature of this novel musical show. Fabien-Sevitzky conducts the orchestra in another of his distinctive musical impressions.

LOEW'S STATE THEATRE

The eagerly awaited premiere of Frank Capra's newest Columbia picture "The Great Dictator" starring Warner Baxter and Myrna Loy is the screen attraction scheduled to open Friday at Loew's State theatre.

Heading the select list of short subjects is the latest Mickey Mouse cartoon entitled "The Dognapper", while others include "Zion Canyon of Colour," a Fitzpatrick Traveltalk entirely in technicolor, and the latest issue of Hearst Metrotone News with Edwin C. Hill as the Globe Trotter.

Arthur Martel, who unquestionably has proven to be a favorite with Back Bay theatregoers continues in his tenth week as guest organist and offers another highly entertaining program of organ melodies.

Looking Inside

Among the various expenses of Middlesex County are such items as "Commitment of Insane" and "Views and Inquests". The former cost $14,726.94 last year and went mostly to Doctors. The smallest amount any doctor received was $4.20 and the largest amount was $1,159.60. Say he must have been busy committing them—glad I never met the gentlemen.

For the latter item $15,079.30 was paid. Two Medical Examiners got over $3,000; two more about $1,500, and fourteen others sums from $775. down to $22. Other expenses under this heading went to Undertakers—not "Morticians" mind you but just plain old fashioned Undertakers.

P.S. Well the old year has gone and I do not know anyone who has any great regret. It certainly has been a pain in the neck to some. We look toward the New Year, if not with certainty at least with Hope.

P.S.S. This town, as with all others, starts the new year by turning over a new leaf, actually and literally, for on Jan. 1 the new fiscal year starts and all Departments in the town may begin spending money afresh for regular expenses. On Dec. 31, cities and towns close their books and any cash on hand in theory at least is locked up and can only be used to pay the bills or borrowings made before that date. Any taxes received after that date are used to offset borrowings made in anticipation of taxes for that year. So that right now as the town spends money for daily regular expenses it is spending money it has borrowed in expectation that its taxpayers will meet their obligations later in the year.

Town Officials Will Address Men's Club

Tuesday evening, January 15 the Arlington Heights Men's Club will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Parish House of the Arlington Heights Congregational Church.

This meeting will be the first of the "Know Your Local Government" series at which the head of our local government, Leonard Collis, Chairman of the Arlington Board of Selectmen, will speak on the duties and functions of that body. George H. Lowe, Jr. and Ernest W. Davis have also been invited to be present.

The Chairman of the other departments of our local government will be invited to speak at subsequent meetings in the future relative to their departments.

NEW SCOLLAY THEATRE

"FATHER BROWN" DETECTIVE, opens at the new Scollay Theatre today and introduces Walter Connolly, popular screen character actor in the personality of a man already made famous and familiar to the millions of readers of the G. K. Chesterton stories which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post.

Seven acts of vaudeville, direct from Broadway, will complete an excellent program.

Manning, a leader in Arlington's dramatic affairs; Herbert Ellison, an old stager who always delights his audience; and Leonard Wood, who not only acts but plays his violin during the performance.

Others who are taking important part are: James Snow, Earl Lewis, Paul White, Prescott Baston, Chester Ginder, Richard Guinan and Jennie Carlson.

Mr. Baston designed the scenery, which is now being built, and Howard Dawes will as usual act as stage manager.

KEITH MEMORIAL

At a special preview performance tonight at 10 P. M. the Keith Memorial Theatre will proudly present to Boston a new screen personality, the charming British star, Jessie Matthews, known as "Princess Personality Herself", who will be seen by picture audiences for the first time in America in "Evergreen". The film is adopted from the London stage show of the same name which played for a solid year with the same star in the leading role. The play and the picture were both written by the famous Benn Levy, while the music was written by Rodgers and Hart who were responsible for such successes as "Connecticut Yankee", "Dearest Enemy" and "The Girl Friend".

Backgrounded with fascinating London night life and theatrical scenes embellished with spectacle, music and a superlative cast, Jessie Matthews makes her starring debut for Gaumont British Pictures under the most favorable auspices.

ARLINGTON TO HAVE FREE ERA CONCERT

An unusual musical treat is in store for Arlington citizens on Wednesday evening, January 16, when the Greater Boston E.R.A. Chorus of one hundred voices will give a free public concert at eight o'clock in Robbins Memorial Town Hall. The chorus, which is comprised entirely of professional singers, includes many well-known concert artists in the Greater Boston area. The chorus is under the direction of Frederick Lamb who is widely known as an instructor in voice culture. The chorus will be augmented by an E.R.A. Symphony Orchestra composed of forty-three professional musicians. The orchestra will be conducted by Albert M. Kanrich.

While there is no charge whatever to those who wish to attend this unique concert, admission will be by ticket only. The Arlington Men's Club, which is sponsoring the affair, has had one thousand tickets printed for distribution in order that every interested resident of Arlington may have an opportunity to hear these two musical groups. Tickets for this free concert may be obtained simply by calling at the Robbins Library and asking for them.

The Board of Selectmen who has granted the free use of Robbins Memorial Town Hall for this concert thus making it possible for the public to enjoy an evening of fine music and obtain first-hand knowledge of the splendid work being accomplished through the musical organizations sponsored by the E.R.A.

News of the Local Girl Scout Troops

Attention is called to the 18th annual observance of National Thrift Week from Jan. 17-23. These seven days celebrate the anniversary of the birth of Benj. Franklin, America's apostle of thrift. Girl Scout troops will celebrate in some fitting way.

Mrs. Irving Poole, commissioner, Mrs. John Brackett, Deputy Commissioner, Mrs. Harold Yeames, metropolitan district commissioner, attended a Commissioners' Institute at State Headquarters, Tuesday. At this meeting, past commissioner Mrs. James Kidder gave a ten minute talk on the relations of a commissioner to the council and community.

Miss Unsworth, director, and Mrs. Poole, attended a Trainers' conference for State Brownie Committee members, and local directors, Wednesday.

The leaders' association will meet Monday evening, Jan. 21.

Any girl having outgrown uniforms may find a sale for them by taking them to headquarters.

Court Hands Down Final Decree In Ye Lantern Case

In a final decree handed down by the Superior Court, Edward J. and Laura E. Corper are "restrained and enjoined from permitting the use of Ye Lantern hall, on Pond lane, in a manner to cause unreasonable annoyance to neighbors in the following particulars, using a megaphone between sunset and sunrise to call in from the pond persons who have hired boats or canoes from the defendants, allowing loud talking in the hall, profanity, cheering, stamping of feet, drunkenness, shouting, by the patrons of the hall or the congregating of large and boisterous crowds on the premises."

The equity proceedings were brought by Robert J. Howard, Mary H. Howard, Alice H. Joyce, Annie Mannix and James Gallagher, who live near the hall. The case, several sessions of which were held here in Arlington, attracted considerable attention.

CITIZENS' COMMITTEE TO ENDORSE SLATE

Scout Drive Is Under Way

Under the chairmanship of Herman Gammons, principal of the Arlington High School, a group of 100 men gathered Monday night at Wyman's Tavern to start the annual financial campaign for Arlington's share of the Sackham Council budget.

Dr. Bancroft, Seattle, President of Sackham Council, formerly Scout Commissioner and at the present time a member of the Executive Board of Sackham Council, spoke on "The Need for Scouting." He mentioned the development of Scouting to meet a definite social need caused by the growth of cities and the value of the Scouting Program giving boys a contact with outdoor life, stimulating interest in a wide variety of subjects with consequent worth while use of leisure time, and the character forming elements of Scouting. He pointed out the character values of churches, homes and schools but stressed the favorable setting of training and character through the Scouting Program of activities of interest to boys.

Russell P. Wise, chairman of the Sackham Council Public Relations Committee, explained the need for financial support.

Nation's Problems Discussed In Talk Given By Manchester

Charles R. Manchester, News Editor of the Boston Globe, addressed a large gathering of men and women at the Senior High School auditorium last Monday evening. The address was one of a series given under the auspices of the Arlington School Department.

Mr. Manchester devoted most of his talk to a discussion of foreign affairs although he did touch on the unemployment situation in this country.

Referring to the recent treaty which guarantees independence to Austria the speaker said that in his opinion it was drawn up to prevent an alliance between Germany and Austria. The treaty was signed, he said, by Foreign Minister Laval of France and Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy.

Another interesting fact which he brought out pertains to the credit relations between the United States and foreign countries which have not paid their war debts. He stated that we will extend no more credit to them until some understanding is reached. "This," he said, "stops the sale of Soviet bonds in the United States."

Regarding our possessions, Mr. Manchester said that they cost more for upkeep than they return to the United States. Taking the Philippines as an example he pointed out that they will be free in a decade or so and that in the meantime they cost the United States a large sum annually. The Philippines are not self-supporting, he said, and this is also true of the islands of Guam and Samoa.

Commenting on affairs in America, Mr. Manchester said that the agencies set up by the federal government to alleviate unemployment and known by alphabetic letters will soon be a thing of the past. In the United States, he said, there are some 4,000,000 persons who cannot or will not accept employment for one reason or another. This is true both in good times and bad, he declared, and the problem of the administration at Washington this year will be to separate them from those willing to work. When this is done, he said, there will still be 15,000,000 subsisting on federal funds.

Mrs. Wilcox Speaker Before Junior Women

The guest speaker at the Junior Women's Club last Monday, Mrs. David Wilcox, not only reviewed some of New York's latest plays but gave some very interesting sidelights as to what happens behind stage and in the producer's office. Special music, a group of three selections, was provided by the Junior Women's Club Trio, Phyllis Edwards, Phyllis Lamonte and Audrey Lester.

The first chorus rehearsal is to be held at the home of Virginia Brooks, 103 Claremont ave., on Tuesday January 15 at 7:30. If interested in this orchestra, please call Audrey Lester, Plymouth street.

Minister Raps Legalizing of Liquor Sale

Referring to the legalizing of the manufacture and sale of liquor, Rev. Richard T. Broeg, pastor of the Heights Methodist church in a stirring talk before the W. C. T. U., last Wednesday afternoon, said, "Christian citizens hang their heads in shame when they know that their government has made them a party to the debauching of their fellowmen. Booze does not create employment, it merely diverts money to a different channel."

"Drunkennes," bootlegging, rum-running have increased. Alcohol has played a part in the increasing number of fatalities due to auto accidents. Crime has increased. A break-down of public morality has resulted. What is morally and socially wrong cannot be economically right. I see before us a long hard fight. There will be no mercy shown on either side. We must educate, convert and persuade. Eternal vigilance is the price of a decent civilization."

A musical program was presented after the talk with Harry Fortunate Bay, violinist, playing the "Aria in G" and Handel's "Largo" assisted by Mrs. John Mellon at the piano. The luncheon at Ford Hall, Jan. 16 and County Convention at the Cambridge Y. W. C. A. Jan. 22 from 10 to 2 p. m. were announced. Miss Isabel Waite and Mrs. W. Gouldie were hostesses.

NEW OLDSMOBILE CARS ON DISPLAY SATURDAY

OLDSMOBILE SALESROOM

The new Oldsmobiles for 1935 are arriving at the various dealers through out the country from Lansing, Michigan, and these are assigned to Arlington will be on formal parade this Saturday when they will be shown by F. K. Johnson, 745 Massachusetts ave., at his showrooms. Several models and colors will be on display.

Oldsmobile has retained on the new Sixes and Eights all of the proven features of previous years, which include sturdy knuckled wheels, Fisher bodies and 10-draft ventilation, automatic choke, super hydraulic brakes, and have lengthened the wheelbases, redistributed the weight so the passengers now ride between the axles, used a solid steel top which is sound and rumble proof, and many other innovations.

"Heralded as one of the safest cars built, the 'turret top' body by Fisher is a real safety advance," according to Gordon B. Seavey, manager of the local concern, "and in this new Oldsmobile the passengers ride with steel above them, steel below them and steel all around them. This type of construction increased the strength of the body 40 per cent. This roof also plays an important part in the new streamlined design, which combines the principles of aero dynamics with real beauty."

"In my experience in the automobile business," said Mr. Seavey, "I have never seen a better demonstration of real value giving than in these new Oldsmobiles for 1935. In the face of generally rising prices throughout the industry, Oldsmobile is holding the delivered price of the six to practically the same as last year, while the big eight delivers for $25.00 less than in 1934."

"Considering all facts, I am certain that Oldsmobile will again double its sales record as it did in 1934. The new car for 1935 is certainly 'the car that has everything.' Most of all, I am enthusiastic because the prices are so low in proportion to the size, quality and completeness of the new cars."

The Johnson organization is starting its second year in Arlington, maintaining complete Oldsmobile sales and service at the Colonial Garage, while its Lexington branch, where Chevrolet and Oldsmobile are handled, has been long established. George R. Graham and James M. Harrigan are two of their well-known local salesmen. Many will view these new models prior to the opening of the Boston Auto Show.

Stamp collectors will welcome the news that the Battle Drug company, 1043 Massachusetts ave. is now a stamp outlet for all kinds of domestic and foreign stamps. The store also carries a full line of albums and stamp collectors' supplies.

Oxford Court Grille Introduces Welcome Addition To Menu

The management of the Oxford Court Grille and Spanish Room, located at 1812 Massachusetts ave., Cambridge, seem always to have some surprise for their patrons, not only in the form of new dishes well prepared and served in an atmosphere that everyone enjoys but in addition to the menu.

The last addition to their menu is the inclusion of serving wine with their Special Six Course Steak or Chicken Dinner, all for One Dollar. When they say steak they mean steak that is the best the market affords.

Their six course dinner includes all the fixings with a choice of Domestic Wines. Mr. Teichner, the manager, says, "whenever we add any additional course to our menu, we never detract from the quality and service and those who had the experience of dining and winning in the Oxford Court Grille know that there is always some surprise awaiting them in the form of new dishes or some new collection of rare old wines and liquors, which they constantly keep on adding." Their collection is credited to be representing the best from thirty-two nations served and mixed by Louis, whom all the patrons know.

Fire in a pile of rubbish in the store owned by S. J. Silbert, 103-A Broadway caused heavy smoke last Sunday morning but little damage was done. Several pieces of fire apparatus from the Central station, nearby, responded.

Mrs. C. Frederick Evans and Miss Dorothea Evans, of 109 Claremont ave., are among the holiday visitors at Hotel Lincoln, New York city.

"DOC" McCARTY BUILDING TRACK TEAM FOR 1935

With his team riddled by graduation, Doc McCarthy, Arlington High track coach, need a dismal season for 1935.

He is not one, however, who for long bemoans the loss of the stars of his State championship teams. This crafty genius is already grooming a group which will be very serious contenders for championship honors again this year.

The new edition will be built around Captain William Does and "Cyclone" Hoffman, who have tasted the sweets of victory with teams of other years.

Hoffman and Does will carry on very creditably in the dashes and also in the 300. In the 600, Cook should gather his share of laurels for he is improving by leaps and bounds.

The 1000-yd. run will find Paul Cronin, Knapp and Davison carrying the colors of Arlington to victory in all their races this year.

The hurdles is another strong point in this year's track team, for "Cyclone" Hoffman and "OK-le" O'Connor are already down near record figures in this pasturesque.

The high jump will sport such stars as Charley Tibbitts, "Chan" Lewis and Johnny McDermott. Horne and Madden are showing fine form in the shot-put and when the season is in full swing no doubt will be found in the charmed circle.

Ray Gray and "Chan" Lewis will represent Arlington in the

Junior East Tops West Team, 19-16

Trailing at the end of the half, Junior High East basketball team broke fast in the second half to win over the West in a fast game at the East gym this week.

Quinn and Donovan did most of the scoring for the West and were aided on the defense by Cashman the center for the West.

East was very aggressive in the last half of the game as were the West in first half.

In the preliminary game the East 2nd's defeated the West 2nd's easily 12 to 3.

AMATEUR BASKETBALL LOOP OPENS SEASON

Arlington and Melrose in Tie

By BOB FOREST
Arlington High has yet to beat its ancient and time worn enemy in Ice Hockey since away back in 1927 when Gus Lane, Sherm Forbes, Lennie Moore, Herb Forest, John Thorin and Bussie Manning did the trick in the Melrose rink. They won by a single score 1-0. Since then Melrose has held the upper hand and the best Arlington has been able to make is a 0 to 0 score, which was accomplished last Saturday at the Boston Garden.

Arlington had the upper hand most of the game due to the great work of Joe Gardella and Billy Collins. Penalties were frequent for both teams. Both teams each had two men off the ice on one occasion. Billy Collins was the hero of the game when in the last minutes of the game he tripped Foster who had broken loose with the puck and was headed down on Sakolan. Billy got a penalty but Melrose failed to convert. The Arlington goal line bore the brunt of the Melrose attack, facing its first line most of the game, but as clever as Coach Charlie Downes was his first line failed to come through and some great generalship went for nothing.

Arlington had a hard game to-morrow when it tackles Belmont, who has the logical All-Star center in its line, "Rash" Kevie and Bob McCreck shots of the Arlington team, will have their hands full trying to drive one through that goal.

Summary of last Saturday's game:
MELROSE—Shaw, MacInnes, Foster, Davidson, c; DeCoste, Sullivan, lv; Mayne, Rotundi, rd; Priestley, id; Goding, Thayer, g. ARLINGTON—Kevie, chipman, lv; Norberg, Gardella, c; Mee, Preston, rw; Byrne, id; Collins, rd; Sakolan, g.
Penalties—Mee (slashing), MacInnes (leg check), Mayne (hooking), Gardella (charging), Norberg (holding), Gardella (stripping), Sullivan (interference), Foster, Cleary and Kevie. Time, three 12m periods.

Chelsea Quintet Tops Local High

The Arlington High team met its first defeat of the season last Friday night when it was downed by a far superior Chelsea High team, 25 to 16 in the new Auditorium.

Chelsea led the entire game and was only pushed slightly in the last period when it put their subs and then had to shove the regulars back in again to keep Arlington from getting too close. Nightmen for the winners was the whole show while Captain Lowder for the locals kept the Red and Gray in the game with his long distance shooting.

The second team put on a great show and the game proved far more interesting than the regular game. Arlington won 20 to 12.

One of the largest crowds ever to witness a basketball game at the new gymnasium jammed the hall to overflowing.

By BOB FOREST
The Arlington Amateur Basketball League started with a large attendance last Monday night at Junior High East, six teams competed and the scores were: Sylvanians 23, Fab Juniors 10, Rangers 23, Menotomy Club 16, St. James Catholic Club 22, Bears 18.

The upset of the evening was the downfall of the strong Menotomy Club by the Rangers. "Red" Basley, former Arlington ace was the valiant guard who held the Menotomy Club from scoring all evening while George Igoo was scoring for the Rangers. The Sylvanians and St. James Catholic Club also showed surprising strength and the League promises to be close and extremely interesting.

Bob Friery refereed all the games, and makes the game a great deal better to watch with his great work. He proved to be a huge success both with the crowd and the players and kept everything running smoothly.

Monday night the Amateur League will play its second set of games. An even larger crowd of spectators will be present to watch the games. The schedule: Menotomy Club vs. Fab Juniors, Bears vs. Rangers, Sylvanians vs. St. James Catholic Club.

Local Quintet Tops Everett

Trailing for three periods, Arlington High's basketball quintet in a last minute rally edged the Everett High hoopers in the new senior high auditorium last Tuesday afternoon. The score was 21 to 19.

Everett was ahead 6 to 5 at the end of the first period and long end of a 12 to 6 score at gained steadily until it was on the half. A rally for Arlington in the third started things humming for the Red and Gray and Jones put the Lowell aggregation ahead one point. Gentle, Everett star, shot a basket and again put Everett in the lead. Siders in the final period tied the tally with a free shot and Lowder finally scored two baskets to win the game.

Arlington seconds lost their first game of the season, 27-22.

Garden Club Hears Educational Talks

Two Happy Gardeners—Mrs. Randall and Mrs. Greenough of Wakefield, gave an ingeniously illustrated talk on "Keeping Your Garden Up-to-Date" at a meeting of the Garden Club in Robbins library last Wednesday. The talk was illustrated with gadgets, new and practical for gardening and a miniature garden.

The club voted to endorse proposed legislation for a State Planning board. Owing to the absence in Europe of the speaker originally scheduled, the Guest Night program has been postponed.

Brackett School Has Lively Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Brackett School Parent-Teacher Association was held Tuesday evening in the school auditorium. The program for the evening was expertly planned by the following committee:

Milton J. Washburn, Jr., chairman; Walter Whitton and Herbert Teale. This was "Fathers' Night."

The speaker for the evening was Rev. Robert Walker, of the Concord Reformatory stressed the importance of training the child in the home while he is still young for such small incidents as "short changing" mother on their return from the store quite unwittingly leads the child on to the pathway of crime.

The musical numbers for the evening were all furnished by local talent consisting of a trumpet solo by John Masso, Jr., vocal solos by Nelson Patchett accompanied by Mrs. Linwood Parker and Albert Bridgens sang a solo and accompanied himself on the guitar. They were all exceptionally fine numbers.

We wish to call the attention of all mothers interested in the Study Group for pre-school and elementary school grades to the meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. W. L. McNeill, 186 Newport st. on Friday, Jan. 18, at 2 o'clock. The subject of "Habit Training" and "Routine" will be discussed at this meeting and we sincerely hope that every mother who can will attend.

The regular Study Group will meet at the home of Mrs. Waldo Edwards, 156 Scituate st. Tuesday evening, Jan. 22 at 8 p. m. At this meeting Miss Lilla Mann is going to tell something of her work in the "World Friendship Club" with school children and a general discussion of present conditions will follow. All mothers interested in the "Peace" movement should attend this meeting.

The company known as "The Jolly Caper of Marionettes" will present "Snow White" and four acts of vaudeville at the Saturday afternoon program for children at the Brackett School auditorium this Saturday, Jan. 12, at 2:30 p. m. These programs are sponsored by the P. T. A. and a small admission charge is made to help defray the expenses.

D. A. R. To Hear Talk At Next Meeting

Menotomy Chapter, D. A. R., will meet on Friday, Jan. 11, 2:30 p. m. at Wyman's English Tavern.

"Movies Up and Down" will be the subject discussed by Mrs. Jessie L. Learned of Winthrop, who is to serve as State Director of the Motion Picture Dept. for the next ten years. She has also been the manager of the "Winthrop Sun".

Gifts for Ellis Island will be received at this time.

Gospel Team At Calvary Church

A Gospel Team from the Boston University School of Theology will be in charge of the Sunday evening programs at Calvary Church beginning with January 13 and continuing through February 3.

The five members of this team represent four states and five different colleges: Harvey Nelson, captain of the team has his home in Goodell, Iowa and is a graduate of Morningside College, Ray, Proudfoot lives in West Somerville and was graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University. Lisle Bartholomew of Whitehall, N. Y. attended Albright College, Wendell Minnich of Parkersburg, Pennsylvania was graduated from Allegheny College. Harrison Davis is from Malden and attended Boston University.

The Team will be in charge of the Epworth League meetings and also of the Evening Worship. The subject for the evening will be "Making Jesus Real" and Mr. Nelson and Mr. Bartholomew will speak Sunday night, January 13.

RKO BOSTON THEATRE

The RKO Boston Theatre presents as its new picture today, "Heldorado", featuring Richard Arlen and Madge Evans, a picture which reunites the great producer-director combination which made motion picture history with such films as "The Covered Wagon", "Old Ironsides" and others.

On the stage, the new program brings a splendid vaudeville show headed by Ranny Weeks and his Bostonian Orchestra and including Sybil Bowen, Paul Sydel and Spotty, Jean Devereau and her dance revue, as well as Eddie White and the Three Whippets.

Bishop Burns To Speak Here

Bishop Charles Wesley Burns of Boston, the resident Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church in New England will speak at the Birthday Banquet of Calvary Church which will be held in the Vestry Thursday evening, January 17, at 6:45.

The Birthday Banquet is being prepared under the general direction of Mrs. R. A. Bradford. The tickets are being sold under the supervision of Mrs. Sadie A. Gastermer. Mr. Carl Nelson is the chairman in charge of the Turkey banquet which will be served. The decorations will be arranged by Paquinore. Mrs. Albert Simmons is the chairman of the Program committee. Mr. Albert H. Morris will be the toastmaster.

Mrs. Casey Not To Seek Re-election To School Committee

I wish to announce that I sincerely regret my inability to be a candidate for re-election to the School Committee. The pressure of personal problems is too great to permit further public service at this time. I have tried to faithfully execute my duties as a School Committee member and wish to thank all voters of Arlington who granted me the opportunity to serve.

Arlington is indeed fortunate with Dr. Dempsey as superintendent for he is an educator of rare understanding who fully intent upon promoting only the best in our schools. He has the sincere cooperation of the full committee with whom I served and to whom I wish to pay tribute as an exceptional public spirited group serving loyally at great personal sacrifice.

I have enjoyed my service, have made some contributions I trust and regretfully relinquish my honored position as a member of the Arlington School Committee.

which had been found by the election officers and credited to your petitioner."

Senator Warren alleges there were certain irregularities in other parts of the district.

He claims he lost upwards of 300 votes by fraudulent practices over and above the number shown on the election certificate. He says it is uncertain how many valid votes Senator Daly has received.

SEN. DALY WELCOMES

THOROUGH AND FULL

FRAUD INVESTIGATION

Sen. Charles T. Daly said he welcomed a prompt and thorough investigation of the allegations of fraud by the defeated candidate, Charles C. Warren, not only in Medford, but throughout the whole Senatorial district, if necessary.

Sen. Daly's statement follows: "I have been legally elected by a plurality of 128 on the first count, and this plurality has increased to 262 by the recount asked by the defeated candidate, Mr.

Warren, giving me a plurality increase of 70 per cent. The recount was full and complete.

"I was satisfied with the original count by the election officers, and, as well, by the recount of the registrars of voters.

"Any and all allegations which the defeated candidate has made or wishes to make, before the Senate or any other proper tribunal, I welcome.

"I also welcome prompt and thorough investigation, and the report, after a fair hearing of these allegations, imaginary or otherwise, of fraud, in any part of the Senatorial district, as well as in Medford.

"I was defeated by the present defeated candidate, Mr. Warren three times. I defeated him at the election Nov. 6th, in a fair and square count and recount of the 52,000 votes.

"The election is over. Senator Daly won. Ex-Senator Warren was defeated.

"Transposing the old phrase, I might suggest 'What is sauce for the Gander is sauce for the Goose.'"

Lilting Melodies In Picture At Capitol

Glamorous romance, beautiful women, whimsical humor and the haunting strains of Franz Lehár's famous music blend into an entertainment of indescribable charm in Ernst Lubitsch's production of "The Merry Widow," playing Monday at the Capitol theatre.

With Maurice Chevalier and Jeanette MacDonald as co-stars, singing the world-beloved songs and enacting the whimsical romance of the musical masterpiece, Metro Goldwyn Mayer staged the picture on a massive scale.

Also on the same program will be "The Merry Widow," starring Charles Ruggles and Mary Boland in "The Pursuit of Happiness."

Will Honor Senator Daly At Big Banquet

Several Arlington people are planning to attend the testimonial banquet to be tendered to Senator Charles T. Daly at Pitman Academy in Medford on Tuesday evening, January 22 at 7 o'clock. Several prominent speakers will address the gathering. Residents of Arlington, Medford, Winchester and Woburn, comprising the sixth Middlesex district will attend the affair.

WILL FILE BILL

practically open at the user's risk.

Anticipating a big demand from promoters and others for permits to conduct business enterprises along the new highway, definite steps have already been taken to protect the scenery from invasion of hot-dog stands and gasoline filling stations.

A board of five comprising a member from the Planning Boards of each of the following towns, Arlington, Belmont, Lexington, Lincoln and Concord has for many months been considering ways and means to effectively regulate and control the use of abutting land and otherwise protect the trunk highway now largely completed under the provisions of Chapter 302 of the Acts of 1932; this highway being designated in the Act as the Concord Turnpike, and passing through the towns above mentioned, is located within the City of Cambridge at the Arlington line.

This highway embracing a right-of-way of about 100 feet in width for its entire length of fifteen miles has been constructed at a cost in excess of $2,000,000. The present width of the finished construction is about 40 feet.

While the highway follows in part the old route of the Concord Turnpike, very substantial portions however are laid out through new territory to avoid the present congested centers of towns and to permit of good alignment and easy grades at a minimum of cost consistent with the design of a super-highway to carry a large volume of high speed traffic.

The rich history which the road passes is typical New England country side and almost wholly residential in character and one of exceptional scenic beauty. It is also of historical significance in view of its passage through the towns of Lexington and Concord.

With a few exceptions the entire area embraced in the location of this new road is now zoned by the respective towns for residential use only. It has seemed important to the Planning Boards of the several towns and to this committee representing them, that immediate action should be taken so that this highly important traffic artery, constructed at great expense, shall not only be protected against the invasion of undesirable business and other enterprises which definitely tend to create congestion on the highway and otherwise defeat the very purpose for which the road was constructed. They also feel that the value of the land adjacent to the road in the several towns should not be impaired by the introduction of detrimental developments.

While the application of the zoning laws already in force in the various towns would, to some extent, protect this new road and the abutting areas along the lines above considered, this committee feels that due to lack of uniformity in the zoning laws of the several towns, and the fact that each town would be compelled to deal with its own zoning problem locally, it would be difficult, if not impossible, to secure uniform and effective treatment for the road as a whole, and that such an approach to the problem would be ineffective and futile.

The committee after considering the matter several months and carefully examining the various town zoning by-laws as well as the laws relating to highway, park and other collateral uses, believes that the most effective method to employ is the introduction of special legislation for the protection of this road.

Will File Bill A bill has therefore been drafted and will shortly be filed in the Legislature to be known as "An act regulating and restricting the erection, alteration and use of building, structures, land and advertising signs and devices along the Concord Turnpike so-called being the state highway laid out under the provisions of Chapter 302 of the Acts of 1932."

The bill provides that no business or industry shall be located within 100 feet from the exterior line of the highway and then only when the town zoning by-law permits a business or industrial use.

Dwellings, farms, nurseries, greenhouses, dairies and similar uses and their customary incidental accessory uses would be permitted as at present within the scope of the existing by-laws of each of the respective towns. Roadside stands and similar enterprises would be subject to the 100 foot set back.

To Protect Public There are several signs appearing on the billboards and other advertising devices, fixing their size and limiting their set back with a view to the promotion of public safety.

The State Department of Public Works is authorized when the public good requires it, to vary the application of the law so as to permit in specific cases and subject to appropriate safeguards, as well as in conformity with local zoning laws, the establishment of trading centers and other similar essential services. Likewise the Board of Public Works is authorized to make reasonable rules and regulations for the location, construction and use of suitable entrances, driveways, approaches or other means of ingress to and egress from the turnpike to secure the best utilization of the road as a fast through highway, as well as to promote public safety, convenience and welfare and to increase the amenities of the territory.

The bill also provides a method of enforcement of its requirements as well as the imposition of fines for non-compliance.

The committee believes that the provisions of this proposed bill are reasonable and necessary, not only to protect the heavy investment which the state has made and to provide for greater highway safety, but also to safeguard the interest of the towns in which the highway is located.

Lester W. Collins represents Arlington on the new committee.

Ryder To Seek Another Term

Earl A. Ryder of 31 Norfolk will seek another term as Assessor in the town election to be held next March, it was learned this week.

He has served on the board for five years. He was first appointed to fill the vacancy due to the death of Martin Gallagher and was later elected for another term. He has been active in the affairs of the Chamber of Commerce and is very well known in Arlington.

Will File Bill A bill has therefore been drafted and will shortly be filed in the Legislature to be known as "An act regulating and restricting the erection, alteration and use of building, structures, land and advertising signs and devices along the Concord Turnpike so-called being the state highway laid out under the provisions of Chapter 302 of the Acts of 1932."

The bill provides that no business or industry shall be located within 100 feet from the exterior line of the highway and then only when the town zoning by-law permits a business or industrial use.

Dwellings, farms, nurseries, greenhouses, dairies and similar uses and their customary incidental accessory uses would be permitted as at present within the scope of the existing by-laws of each of the respective towns. Roadside stands and similar enterprises would be subject to the 100 foot set back.

To Protect Public There are several signs appearing on the billboards and other advertising devices, fixing their size and limiting their set back with a view to the promotion of public safety.

The State Department of Public Works is authorized when the public good requires it, to vary the application of the law so as to permit in specific cases and subject to appropriate safeguards, as well as in conformity with local zoning laws, the establishment of trading centers and other similar essential services. Likewise the Board of Public Works is authorized to make reasonable rules and regulations for the location, construction and use of suitable entrances, driveways, approaches or other means of ingress to and egress from the turnpike to secure the best utilization of the road as a fast through highway, as well as to promote public safety, convenience and welfare and to increase the amenities of the territory.

The bill also provides a method of enforcement of its requirements as well as the imposition of fines for non-compliance.

The committee believes that the provisions of this proposed bill are reasonable and necessary, not only to protect the heavy investment which the state has made and to provide for greater highway safety, but also to safeguard the interest of the towns in which the highway is located.

Lester W. Collins represents Arlington on the new committee.

OPEN TOWN WARRANT

The warrants for the annual town meeting and special town meeting in March were open by the Selectmen last Monday evening. Articles can be inserted up until February 4 at 5 p. m.

Curry School Of Dancing Has Annual Christmas Party

Robbins Memorial Town Hall was the scene of three most attractive dancing parties given for the pupils of the Curry School of Dancing last week.

Mrs. Curry as hostess, received in sapphire blue velvet. From two to four o'clock the younger children numbering over fifty had their good time, the patronesses for this class being Mesdames Milton C. Paige, Jr., William A. Humphreys and Clifford Strout. The "young ladies" were introduced by Chandler Smart, Richard Stevenson, Wallace Flynn and Edward Leary, who did their duties manfully. Favors were given and two elimination dances were held with prizes for the four lucky ones. Balloons were also given each child. Ice-cream was served during intermission and Miss Juanita Peterson and Russell Curry gave a stage version of the Continental followed by Miss Margaret Singleton and Mr. Curry in an Argentine Tango. Both merited the applause given. After the children had demonstrated the various steps learned in the first half year of their instruction they made their farewell bows and were followed by a beginners class of Junior High age.

Mesdames Alfred T. Baker Ward F. Chick and Robert Clifford, Jr., received in dressy afternoon frocks and the ushers were Milton Paige, Bradford Richards, Arthur Saul, Donald Moore, Ward Chick, Robert Cade, William Bent and Kenneth Higgins. Some hundred and thirty young people enjoyed the two hours of dancing, prizes and favors and during the intermission were entertained by Miss Peterson and Mr. Curry. Owing to repeated requests Miss Peterson and Mr. Curry gave a "tap routine." The music was by Mrs. H. H. Stinson at the piano and Howard Cutter, traps.

The Advanced Junior High group and the High School class (numbering one hundred and fifty) had their party in the evening. Mrs. Grace D. Curry in black and gold evening dress and Mrs. Ernest Benham, Mrs. Edward H. Leonard and Mrs. David Kennedy in modish evening toilettes received the attractively gowned young ladies presented by Messrs. Russell Wise Warren Bixby, Robert and Richard Brainard, Chester Hill, Norman Austin, John Downey, Henry Guernsey, John Hicks and Theodore Lacey. There wasn't a dull moment for the seven piece orchestra with Allen Smith at the piano kept them busy on the floor when Mrs. Curry was not providing other amusement. The same exhibition dances were given by Misses Peterson and Singleton.

broad jump. They both can jump over 9 feet, so they bid fair for many laurels in the coming season.

This cracker jack team is to be found practising diligently each afternoon on the board track beside the new building of the High School.

Pre-season predictions show that "Cyclone" Hoffman should be outstanding on this great team this season, but he sits uneasy upon his perch, for some unknown, unheralded youth may develop swiftly under the careful tutelage of Doc McCarthy and supersede him.

Kiwanis News

We were partially under control of Lew Bowe alias Lewis M. Brown acting as president in the absence of Elmer yesterday. Our candid suggestion is that Lew should visit Dr. H. to have his eyes examined. He sure can dish out the fines, but never gets the guilty one, and how he did ride Past President Al Cowie. Dr. Hand while rendering (and how he did render it—just tore it out) the Star Spangled Banner was also under fire, the same as the author of this stirring masterpiece.

Our guest speaker was Sheldon Robinson of the Breck-Brinson Nursery in Lexington, who gave us a very interesting and enlightening talk on the care of the garden.

'TIS A SAD STORY

We "mourn" the passing of our trusty typewriter. Back from the repair man, the following note was attached to the machine: "My first, second and third impressions of this machine after the wreck were that its period of usefulness were about over but realizing that an old typewriter is something like an old friend or pipe I have used several hours of

CLEVER ANSWERS IN AD CONTEST ON DISPLAY

So clever and original were the answers to the Scripps Ad contest this week that a special display of prize winning solutions is now on view at the office of the NEWS, 793 Massachusetts Ave., so that readers may see for themselves what a task the judges had in determining the best answers. The job this week was harder than ever. It was also heart-breaking because we only wish there were enough prizes to go all around.

Most of the answers submitted this week were correct, and there were plenty. Last Monday morning's mail brought in 126 answers. Others left at the NEWS office over the week-end brought it to over 150 answers, flooding the contest editor's desk on Monday.

A glimpse at the letters in the NEWS office window will convince the most skeptical. We congratulate the winners and all who submitted correct answers. Since there is no rule against awarding more than one prize to a person during the series, contestants will note that some competitors have won more than once. However, be assured that the awards were made strictly on the basis of answers submitted. Imagination hasn't been lacking this week, answers came in the form of an alarm clock, fish-pond, a real egg on which the solution was written, and clever verses. The correct answer is HENRY E. KEENAN.

Don't be discouraged if you haven't won as yet. Try your skill this week and use some clever idea in submitting your answer. Mail it in to our office as soon as possible.

Here are this week's winners:

First Prize, $3.00—Miss Esther Hughes, 28 Edmund rd.

Second Prize, $1.00—Mrs. A. Gordon Wier, 15 Alfred rd.

Third Prize, $1.00—Miss June Marilyn Lewis, 7 Victoria rd.

Ten next winners. Pair of tickets to either Capitol or Regent Theatres to each winner:

Mildred Zwicker, 41 Rangeley rd.; Stephen O'Brien, 25 Pierce st.; Helen F. Allison, 44 School st.; Kathryn Hoffman, 21 Oakland ave.; Curtis R. Ganong, 70 Madison ave.; Mrs. F. O'Connell, 66 Scituate st.; Mary E. McManus, 25 Mill st.; Albert C. Leonard, 47 Maynard st.; Bradford Doty, 44 Academy st.; Flora R. Buchanan, 74 Ronald rd.

The above winners unquestionably sent in some really original answers. Others who deserve honorable mention because of very neat and attractive answers are: Dr. Winslow M. Kingman, Dorothy Robbins, Mrs. Elizabeth K. Higgins, Dorothy Twombly, Richard L. Haley, A. W. Shaw, Mrs. Thomas Wharton, Mary Warner, Bertha Cowdrey, J. D. Hilton, Joseph A. Ochs, Louis Reyeroff, Joseph H. Silva, S. W. Wetherbee, Carrie Frost, Mrs. Elmer Rietzel, Miss Frances Riley, Mary M. Casserly and Paul Lamoth.

Next Symphony Concert Feb. 3

Following close upon the reverberations of its first concert of the season, Leonard Wood, conductor of the Arlington Community Symphony Orchestra, announces the program for the organization's second concert, to be held in the Town Hall on the afternoon of Sunday, February 3. Feeling that many people are missing excellent concerts, letters are also being sent to local residents informing them of this program.

The selections indicate an afternoon of music which will be massive without being ponderous, and cultural without being abstruse. It will include an overture and a symphony by Beethoven, a tarantella by Saint-Saens, and a concerto for piano and orchestra from the pen of Rubinstein. Flute and clarinet solos by Verne Powell and Julius Mazzocca will be a feature of the tarantella, while William D. Strong, organist of the Cambridge First Church, Scientist, will be soloist in the concerto.

Scout Training Course Completed

The Sachem Council training course on the Elements of Scout-mastership, which has been running several weeks, ended with a hike to Camp Oak last Saturday afternoon. About fifteen Scouters were present, each man cooking his own meal.

Contests in water boiling and string burning were held and District Scout Commissioner Alfred C. Woodward gave an exhibition of different types of fires. Then the entire group tracked the whifflepoof to his lair under a juniper bush, which bit of outdoor work brought joy to all of them.

In the evening a campfire was held, at which students by the Lion Patrol were entertained. One was a Second Class Investigator and gave a picture of the national and international scope of Scouting.

The quiz of the preceding meeting which had caused the use of some gray matter, was discussed by practically every man present. Scoutmaster Kelsey G. Reed then summarized the course and gave the members a challenge.

The hike closed with the Scout Oath and the Scoutmaster's benediction.

The patrol leaders were Robert H. Mosher of the Lions and Bradford E. Gale of the Flying Eagles.

both mental and moral persuasion to what appears some advantage. You may thus be enabled to turn out a few more letters through its medium. I am sorry to say however, "It ain't what is used to be."

Well-Known Group Of Entertainers In Hallisey Show

The coming musical comedy to be presented Friday evening, January 11, 1935, in the Junior High East is well-underway on rehearsals at present. Laura A. Hallisey, dancing teacher at the Heights has been coaching a cast of 100 people in an all-singing and dancing revue for the last two months at her studio. The story has been written by Miss Hallisey and promises to entertain boys and girls from "six to sixty".

Many of the young men and women taking part have been with Miss Hallisey in her previous productions i.e. The Alton Four, Eleanor Rayer, blues chaser, Rita Fenne, "Sister of Syncopeation," Ski Dineen, Arlington's future air-wave warbler, Clarence Higgins, a new vocal "Lind", will render a tango, "Orchids in the Moonlight." Many other familiar faces will greet the large crowd expected to attend. Judging from Miss Hallisey's show last year, those who want seats are advised to procure tickets immediately at the studio, 1217 Mass. ave. or from one of the cast in the show. Otherwise only standing room will be available. Dancing will follow the show from ten to twelve o'clock.

Youth Saved From Drowning

Quick and courageous work on the part of Robert O'Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter F. O'Neill, of 209 Broadway saved the life of Frank Guarante, of Webster st last Monday noon when the latter broke through thin ice on Spy Pond.

Guarante, well known Arlington youth who has been engaged as a lifeguard at the pond during the summer months, was walking across the pond, on his way home to lunch when the ice, weakened after Sunday's thaw, suddenly gave away. He was out about 100 feet from the shore. O'Neill rushed on onto the ice and pulled Guarante to shore.

Christmas Seal Sale Hits $25,000

Henry C. McKenna, Chairman of the Christmas Seal Sale, states that the Boston Tuberculosis Association has received to date the sum of $25,000 from the sale of Christmas Seals. The Association is grateful to all those who have contributed to this sale. In order to carry on the Prendergast Preventorium, the Sheltered Shop, the clinics and the educational work where it is most needed and to try to reduce the death rate from tuberculosis which has increased 7 per cent here in Boston in the past year, the sum of $40,000 must be received from this source. Many of the recipients of these Seals have not yet responded. It is too late to use the Christmas Seals this year but it is not too late to make a contribution to this worthy cause.
